

South Florida EnergyWhiz Expo
2019-20
RULES SUPPLEMENT
To the
STATE Junior Solar Sprint (JSS) Rules

❖ Design Notebook

- A design notebook with the six required elements must be submitted on competition day in order to compete in the race, design, and innovation competitions, although scores from the design notebook judging will only factor into the design competition score.
- Design notebooks will be returned to teams on competition day so that they may be re-submitted for the state EnergyWhiz.

❖ Design Judging

- Cars and design notebooks must be submitted prior to 8:30 a.m. on competition day. Cars that fail initial inspection have until 9:15 a.m. to resolve any issues and pass re-inspection. Cars that arrive late or do not pass inspection will not be eligible to participate in the design, innovation, or race competitions.

❖ Race Divisions

- The Green Division comprises teams whose most senior member is in the 3rd through 5th grade. Each school may register up to two teams in this division.
- The Blue Division comprises teams whose most senior member is in the 6th through 8th grade. Each school may register up to two teams in this division.

❖ Competition Day

- Students may not participate on more than one team in JSS, even if that other team is in another division.
- Students participating in JSS may not participate in SCO due to potential scheduling conflicts.
- Properly leashed service animals who have been officially trained to assist an owner may be allowed entry. Service animals must be with their owner at all times. Proper documentation may be checked upon entry at our discretion or the discretion of Boca Raton Community High School. No other animals will be allowed on-site.

❖ Awards

- Third place awards for each divisional competition are not guaranteed to be given.
- First place overall awards will be given for each division, based on the highest total score for all 3 competitions. This award comes with free registration to the State EnergyWhiz in Cocoa, FL on April 25, 2020.
- A grand prize award will be given to the one team with the highest total overall score, regardless of division. This award comes with a $100.00 cash prize.
